TROPARION—TONE 3

Let the Heavens rejoice! Let the earth be glad!
For the Lord has shown strength with His arm!
He has trampled down death by death!
He has delivered us from the depths of hell,
And has granted the world great mercy!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, Now and ever,
and unto ages of ages. Amen.

KONTAKION—TONE 3

On this day Thou didst rise from the tomb, O Merciful One!
Leading us from the gates of death.
On this day Adam exults as Eve rejoices;
With the prophets and patriarchs
They unceasingly praise the divine majesty of Thy power!

PROKEIMENON—TONE 3

READER: Sing praises to our God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

PEOPLE: Sing praises to our God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

READER: Clap your hands, all peoples! Shout to God with loud songs of joy!

PEOPLE: Sing praises to our God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

READER: Sing praises to our God, sing praises!

PEOPLE: Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

ALLELUIA VERSES—TONE 3

In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped; let me never be put to shame!

Be Thou a God of protection for me, a house of refuge, in order to save me!

The Twenty Sixth Sunday after Pentecost Luke 12:16-21

And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. (KJV)

The present Gospel is a vivid reminder of the fragility of life. The importance of always caring for the soul is very clear. We never know when our last breath will be taken.

We never know when our earthly life will end. We have statistics about the length of life expectancy. Statistics do not answer for the duration of life for each person.

Too often accidents occur and take the life of someone very young. The coronavirus is claiming lives daily. Unexpected events occur and change life expectancies.

The modern world has placed great emphasis on the accumulation of material wealth. The present Gospel highlights the rich man's desire to build more barns to hold his increased goods.

The rich man in the present Gospel had his life brought to an abrupt end. His material wealth would be of no use to him. Had he shared his wealth with the poor and needy, the judgment of his soul would have been different.

The rich man treasured material goods. No mention was made of him having compassion, interest or concern for individuals suffering in his community. His vision was narrow and self-centered.

Christians are to love God and the people in daily life. (1Jn 4:20) Believers are to care for the soul with utmost fervor. St. Mark's Gospel says: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mk.8:36)

The Nativity Fast is underway in the Church. This is the time to prayerfully prepare for the Feast of the Nativity of Jesus Christ. The meaning of Jesus Christ taking on human flesh merits our thoughts throughout this period.

Now is the time for our lives to be transformed and increase in likeness to the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ took on flesh in humble circumstances. He did not live an ostentatious life with excess of luxury and material possessions.

Jesus' manor of dress and mode of transportation were not known to be significantly different than the most common people of the time. Today is a day to evaluate our personal desires and material interests.

Today is the day to assess the amount of effort we put into caring for our souls. Let us ask ourselves if we really need all that we have. Do we have goods and wealth that we can share with the needy known to us?

Many people are suffering today. Suffering has increased significantly during this virus. People have lost good jobs. Workers in unexpected places are experiencing great stress.

Let us look at our souls during this Nativity Fast and determine if we truly love our neighbor. Let us think about the content of our prayers and frequency of our prayers.

The final judgement will look at what we have done with the wealth and talents we have acquired and the way we have put them to use. Have we been generous to God and our neighbor?

Do we seek to build bigger homes while people in our community are homeless? Do we buy more cars than we can drive while people are unable to work because they lack transportation?

Are we getting bigger cupboards and freezers for our food while neighbors are going hungry? What defense will we have before the Lord about the way we handle our income toward God and neighbor?

Each day is an opportunity to invest in the Kingdom of God. The way we use our material wealth, time and talents will determine the way we experience eternity.

The rich man had more material goods than he could handle at the time. Before he could build bigger barns, his life was going to end. The material goods he cherished would go to someone else.

Each moment of life is precious. Moments of life are not retrievable. We cannot reuse them or reclaim them. Moments of life are to be used wisely. They are to be invested in the Kingdom of God.

The time we have here on earth determines where we experience eternity.

Adhering to the Nativity Fast is consistent with caring for our souls. The Church will nourish and guide us through the Fast to the Feast of the Nativity.

Let us be attentive to the teachings and practices of the Church. We can learn from the saints, martyrs and faithful through the centuries of the path to take for eternal life.

God is good and merciful. God's love is shown to us each day if we have eyes to see. Through the prayers of the Most Holy Theotokos and all the saints, may our Lord have mercy on us and save us.

Afterfeast of the Nativity of the Most Holy Theotokos. St. Amphilocius, Bishop of Iconium; St. Gregory; Blessed Alexander Nevsky. November 23/December 6, 2020. Hidden Valley, Pennsylvania. Father Rodney Torbic

Good Morning...Today's Word...(Luke 8-23-25) 12-10-2020

And as they sailed, He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling up with water and were in serious danger. As they went and woke Him, Saying "Master, Master, we are perishing! And He awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves, and they ceased and there was a great calm. He said them, " Where Is Your Faith? And they were afraid and marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that He commands even winds and water obey Him?"

But without Faith it is impossible to please Him: For those who come to God, must first believe that He exists, and the He is a Rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. (Heb. 11)

Whatever it looks like this morning, rest assured that Our Lord is right there with you! He has promised to never leave us. Do we believe it by Faith?

What are your thoughts and prayers this morning?

Lord let our Prayers, rise up like a Spiritual Fragrance, that we may receive Wisdom, and Revelation Knowledge.

Please remember the sick and suffering. Especially for all those who have asked us to pray for them.

Lord Have Mercy, Lord Have Mercy, Lord Have Mercy.

"Do not be foolish in the requests you make to God. Otherwise, you will insult God through your ignorance.

Act wisely in Prayer, so that you may become worthy of glorious things. Ask for things that are honorable from Him who will not hold back.

So that you may receive honor from Him as a result of the wise choice your free will has made.

Solomon asked for Wisdom, and along with it he also received the Earthly Kingdom, for he knew how to ask wisely of the Heavenly King, that is for things that are important. (St. Isaac)

Have an awesome day...

Remember God Loves You, And There's Nothing You Can Do About it! Ask Wisely, Because He hears you! Lazarus [Samantha Lopez's husband]

The Twenty Seventh Sunday after Pentecost Luke 13:10-17

And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him .(KJV)

We are blessed in God's Holy Church to be nourished consistently. The hunger in our souls is addressed in the Divine services and teachings of the Church.

The Church is a witness to the world of the presence and greatness of the Lord. The Church has endured and thrived through the centuries.

The Church has spread around the world from a very small beginning.

Today we learn about the Lord Jesus Christ healing a woman with an infirmity that afflicted her for eighteen years. Satan had bound the woman. Jesus Christ freed the woman from Satan's hold on her.

How many of us know friends or family members who are bound by Satan with alcoholism, drug additions, or criminal behavior? How many of us know persons that want to do good but are unable to overcome Satan's bonds?

Today's Gospel gives hope to everyone bound by Satan. The miracle working power of the Lord Jesus Christ is explicit in the present Gospel. Jesus healed the woman of her long-standing infirmity.

Each of us has behaviors that are contrary to the ways of the Lord God. Each of us says or does things that put our soul in peril. We are captivated by Satan to a certain degree by our own sinfulness.

The Lord Jesus Christ will make a difference in our lives if we firmly turn to Him in faith and repentance. The Church provides the Nativity Fast at this time of the year to transform our lives in preparation for the Feast of the Nativity.

The Lord Jesus Christ took on human flesh and changed the world forever. The Nativity Fast is a period to seriously consider Jesus Christ's birth and the meaning for the world and our personal lives.

The period leading to the Feast of the Nativity is not a time for focusing on commercial or social activities. This is a time to consider the unparalleled event of Jesus Christ taking on human flesh.

Jesus Christ's birth transformed the world in order for humans to be transformed and freed from sin. Today is the day for us to take the initiative to be free of the sins that plague us.

Personal honesty and repentance are necessary to acknowledge personal sins and draw closer to Christ. Today is the day to open the heart, mind and soul fully to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Sin must be firmly and resolutely rejected. Sin is repelled and conquered only when we live in Christ. The Church affords believers the opportunity to draw near to Christ and be healed.

Today many people feel imprisoned and bound by fears resulting from the coronavirus. The Lord Jesus Christ is greater and stronger than the coronavirus.

Believers placing firm faith in Christ will have their fears allayed.

Order and peace prevail in the hearts and minds of believers fully centered on Christ. The hunger of the soul is fully satisfied in the Church. Jesus Christ heals the afflicted bound by fear.

Repentance and Holy Confession free a person from sin. The Precious Body and Blood of Christ unite the believer and fill the believer with Christ. Believers need only repent, trust in the Lord and have resolute faith.

God's Holy Church brings the present Gospel to believers each year as a firm reminder of Christ's healing power. Daily concerns and interest cause believers to stray from the narrow path to the Kingdom of God.

The Church offers the Gospel at each Divine Liturgy to draw believers back from the perilous roads to eternal death. The Gospel offers direction to eternal life.

God's love is ever present to heal, give comfort and strength.

The time of earthly life is limited. Each moment is to be cherished and used wisely. The Church is a constant opportunity for believers to experience the fullness of life as God intends.

Coming to Church and living in Christ is a purely voluntary act. There is no better way to live earthly life. There is no better place to seek eternal life. God's Holy Church offers Christ without compromise.

The confessors, saints and martyrs through the centuries have shown the wisdom of following Christ in the Church. Today is the day to cast off the bonds of sins and experience freedom in Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ will cut the shackles of our sins and free us to live in peace and joy. We need only to heed the Gospel teachings and follow Jesus Christ as known in God's Holy Church.

2021 Lucky Calendar

ALL SAINTS CAMP BOOSTER CALENDARS WILL BE AVAILABLE SOON. Of course, since it's still 2020, there will be many changes to the process, but not the winnings! Pani Gina will have more information soon and we will have it in the next week's bulletin. Meanwhile, just be aware that they are on the horizon...as is 2021! God Bless you for your support for our Church Camp and the folks who camp there!

- With winter approaching, be sure to look through your emergency kit and add supplies specific to winter, such as:
 - o Rock salt or more environmentally safe products to melt ice on walkways. (Remember that these products can be harmful to dogs, so be sure to choose a non-toxic brand if you or your neighbors have pets.)
 - o Sand/gravel to improve traction.
 - o Snow shovels or other snow removal equipment.

- o Heating fuel. If you have a fireplace or wood-burning stove, keep a supply of good, dry wood for heating in case you lose power.
 - o Adequate clothing and blankets to keep warm, including coats, sweaters, hats, gloves, mittens, scarves, etc.
 - o Keep your NOAA Weather Radio in your kit to receive broadcast alerts and warnings directly from the NWS for all hazards. You may also sign up in advance to receive notifications from your local emergency services.
 - Make a Family Communications Plan. Your family may not be together when disaster strikes, so it is important to know how you will contact one another, how you will get back together, and what you will do in case of an emergency.
 - Before the storm hits, download free smartphone apps, such as those available from FEMA and the American Red Cross, which provide information about finding shelters, providing first aid and seeking assistance for recovery.
- Be prepared to bring your pets/animals inside in the event of a winter storm. Move animals and livestock to a sheltered area with non-frozen drinking water.

To our parish family:

We have learned that another parishioner's spouse has tested positive for the COVID-19 virus. Following the direction of His Eminence, Archbishop Daniel, and His Eminence, Metropolitan Antony, we will be adding an additional week of quarantine to our present two, as that parishioner was in church on December 6th.

In an abundance of caution, we ask that you all keep yourselves safe...wear a mask if going into the general community, socially distance as much as physically possible, wash your hands often [moisturize to keep them well!], but—most importantly of all—pray for our parish family, the medical professionals, first responders, postal workers, store workers, and all who make sure we can continue our lives in safety.

God Bless and Keep You ALL! Stay SAFE!!! God Bless!
